

Work History	2006–2009	Relocation to Vancouver, BC, Canada. Continuous photographic freelance work for European and North American Publishers. Portraits, people and film stills photography.
	2003–2006	Move from Germany to the USA, photographic freelance work for German, French and American publishers, editorial portraits, production photography for the Maryland Ensemble Theatre, Frederick, MD; assignments for the Maryland-Life Magazine and the Frederick Magazine; focusing on digital workflows; participating in art shows (Frederick and Baltimore, MD)
	2000–2003	Work as a freelance photographer for German theatres and opera houses (Opera of Frankfurt/Main, Theatres of Heidelberg, Mainz, Wiesbaden, Karlsruhe, Mannheim), literary publishers (author's portraits), TV stations (portraits, concerts), and magazines (travel, photojournalism)
	1999–2000	Six month stay in New Zealand; travel photography
	1991–1999	Full time employment as a photographer at the theatres of Mainz and Karlsruhe, Germany. Responsible for the entire stage and backstage photography of all productions (drama, opera, ballet) as well as for people and advertising photography including film processing, color and b/w printing and presentation
	1991	Freelance photographer at the Theatre of Ulm (drama and opera)
	1986–1988	Assistant producer and PR assistant at the Theatres of Ulm, Germany, and Basel, Switzerland
Education	1988–1990	Education with graduation at the School of Photography “Fachakademie für Fotodesign” in Munich, Germany (former “Bayerische Staatslehranstalt für Photographie”)
	1985–1986	Practical theatre experience (stage set, production, PR) at the Theatre of Ulm, Germany
	1983–1986	Studies of English Literature and Theatre at the University of Munich, Germany
	1983	German Abitur (Equivalent to High School Exam)
Publications		“Theatergespenster,” an illustrated book of theatre photos out of the ordinary by Verlag Hermann Schmidt, Mainz, Germany, 1995
		Photographic documentation of the construction site “Staatstheater Mainz - Neubau Kleines Haus 1992 bis 1997” published as a commemorative publication at the opening of the new playhouse in 1997
Exhibition		“Moments...!” Photographic works on and off stage, Frankfurter Hof, Mainz, Germany, 1998